The Elopement Package

For brides and grooms eloping in the UK or having a micro wedding!

What do I need to know?

The process starts with an initial consultation which is free and no obligation, even if you choose not to proceed with us as your florists for your wedding day.

We will then send a Pinterest mood board showing colours and styles for your day which can be amended via an additional consultation prior to committing to the package.

A second consultation can be scheduled and is included in the package, however if you choose not to go ahead with Muck Home & Floral as your florist, this is chargeable at £15.

If your date is within the next 6 weeks I require full payment up front so I can begin ordering and working on your flowers. If your date is more than 6 weeks away, a 20% deposit is required to secure your date, payment in full will then be required a minimum of 6 weeks prior to your wedding date.

Your flowers will be created using the best British blooms seasonally available wherever possible and supplemented with imported flowers in your colour palette, availability of flowers depending on seasonality and growing conditions and as such I cannot guarantee which flowers will be used in your arrangements.

Delivery options:

1. Your flowers will be available to collect either by yourself, or by a member of the wedding party from 5pm on your agreed date.
2. Depending on location it would also be possible to arrange delivery to your venue or where you're getting ready for an additional cost.

Flowers will arrive/be collected in water where necessary and any vases or boxes can be returned either in person or via post within the following two weeks to my Droitwich studio.
